

Rip and Sew General Meeting Minutes
April 7, 2022
Social Hall

Members were greeted in the lobby and signed in to the Rec Center computer, with assistance. There were sign in sheets for the RnS room. Marsha Smith donated a red and white quilt; Linda Gran sold raffle tickets.

Debbie Dorn opened the meeting:

Pledge of Allegiance

Welcome new members and guests

April birthdays

A consensus was reached that the club will no longer take neighborhood requests for alterations.

This meeting was the Spring Social. The theme was the 1940s, and was chaired by Denise Bryan. Judy Griesemer and Marsha Smith assisted in the planning, The committee created centerpieces, including paper dolls wearing fashions of the times. Diane Stern helped set the tables. Denise's husband, "Mad Mike" played music from the era. There was also a display of items from the time period.

Jeanne Phillips recognized all instructors; she expressed our appreciation by giving flowers to each teacher.

There was a fashion show and members offered commentary on ephemera they brought (jewelry, photos, wedding gowns etc.)

A buffet lunch (croissants and cookies from Bashas) was self-served. Helen Grant won the quilt. The raffle generated $257 cash income.
